United States District Court,
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK.

Machinists Supply Company

AGAINST

Plaintiff.

William J. West as trustee &c
F. Calvin Russell & Clarence
T. Birkett, Jr. &c

Defendant.

To the above named Defendants

You are hereby summoned to answer the complaint in this action, and to serve a copy of your answer on the Plaintiff Attorney at his office, No. 330 Penna Blg in the City of Rochester Monroe County, New York, within twenty days after the service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service; and in case of your failure to appear, or answer, judgment will be taken against you by default for the relief demanded in the complaint.

WITNESS, the Honorable WILLIAM J. WALDAGE, Judge of the District Court of the United States of America, for the Northern District of New York, at the City of Buffalo, this 1st day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

York, having its office and principal place of business in the City of Rochester, New York, and is engaged in the manufacture and sale of leather belts &c.

2. That, as plaintiff is informed and believes, F. Calvin Russell and Clarence T. Birkett were, from March 1, 1899, to May 1, 1899, copartners engaged in the milling business at Penn Yan, Yates County, New York, under the style and firm name of Russell & Birkett.

3. That, as plaintiff is informed and believes, in bankruptcy proceedings had in the United States District Court for the Northern District of New York, the said firm of Russell & Birkett, was, on or about the 1st day of May, 1899, duly adjudged bankrupt, and defendant was duly appointed trustee thereof.

Machinists' Supply Company,

Plaintiff,

against

In Bankruptcy.

William R. Wise, as trustee of Calvin Russell
& Clarence T. Birkett members of the copartnership of Russell & Birkett, bankrupts,

Defendant.

For Complaint the plaintiff alleges:

1. That it is a manufacturing corporation duly organized and incorporated under the Laws of the State of New York, having its office and principal place of business in the City of Rochester, New York, and is engaged in the manufacture and sale of leather belts &c.

2. That, as plaintiff is informed and believes, Calvin Russell and Clarence T. Birkett were, from March 1, 1899, to May 1, 1899, copartners engaged in the milling business at Penn Yan, Yates County, New York, under the style and firm name of Russell & Birkett.

3. That, as plaintiff is informed and believes, in bankruptcy proceedings had in the United States District Court for the Northern District of New York, the said firm of Russell & Birkett, was, on or about the 1st day of May, 1899, duly adjudged bankrupt, and defendant was duly appointed trustee thereof.

4. That, as plaintiff is informed and believes, the defendant, on or about the date last aforesaid, took possession of all the property and chattels of said bankrupt firm, and all property and chattels which were then in its possession, and which included the following described goods and chattels, of the value of $748.76:

250 ft. of 8" Sing. Lea. Belt,

400 ft. of 6" Sing. Lea. Belt,

200 ft. of 4" Sing. Lea. Belt,

100 ft. of 12" Dbl. Lea. Belt,

1000 ft. of 5"-4ply Cotton Belt,

4 -- 2 15/16" Post Hangers,

2 -- 2 15/16" Solid Collars,

16 -- 1-15/16" Post Hangers,

12 -- 1-15/16" Solid Collars,

96 Sq. ft. of Lace Leather,

4 -- 2 11 16 Post Hangers.

5. That on the 7th day of March, 1899, under a contract between the plaintiff and said Russell & Birkett, the above described goods and chattels were sold by the plaintiff to said Russell & Birkett for the sum or price of $748.76, to be paid to the plaintiff by said Russell & Birkett within ten days from the date of delivery, and said goods were duly delivered on or about the 27th day of March, 1899. That said sum has not, nor has any part thereof, been paid.

6. That the plaintiff was induced to sell and deliver said property and chattels to said Russell & Birkett upon credit, as aforesaid, by reason of and upon the false and

foc. 6 fraudulent representations made to the plaintiff by said Russell and Birkett, that said firm of Russell & Birkett was financially strong, had abundant resources and that plaintiff would be taking no chances in delivering the said goods upon credit, whereas, as plaintiff is informed and believes, the said firm of Russell & Birkett was then insolvent, was not financially strong and had not abundant resources, all of which said firm of Russell & Birkett well knew. That plaintiff sold and delivered said goods to said firm in reliance upon said representations as being true. That such representations were made by said Russell & Birkett with intent to deceive and defraud plaintiff by procuring said goods on credit not intending to pay for them.

foc. 7 7. That the aforesaid property and chattels at the time the defendant took possession thereof, as aforesaid, were, and they now are, the property of the plaintiff, and it was then, and now is, entitled to the immediate possession thereof. That on or about the 11th day of May, 1899, the plaintiff duly demanded the said property and chattels of the defendant, but he refused to deliver the same to the plaintiff, and he wrongfully detains the same from the plaintiff.

8. That the plaintiff suffered damages by such wrongful detention by defendant in the sum of $250.

foc. 8 9. That on motion of this plaintiff an order was made by this court on the 3rd of July, 1900, and entered in the office of the clerk of this court on the 6th of July, granting leave to the plaintiff to bring this action. That a copy of such order with notice of entry was served by mail on Calvin J. Hudson Esq., attorney for defendant, on the 7th of July 1900.

Wherefore the plaintiff demands judgment against the defendant for the possession and the recovery of the possession of said property and chattels, or for the value thereof, namely, $748.76, in case a delivery thereof cannot be had, and also damages to the amount of $250 for the unlawful detention thereof, with the costs of this action.
